

THANK YOU

WISCONSIN HUMANITIES

Friends
OF DOOR COUNTY
LIBRARIES

NICOLET FEDERATED
LIBRARY SYSTEM

DOOR
SHAKESPEARE

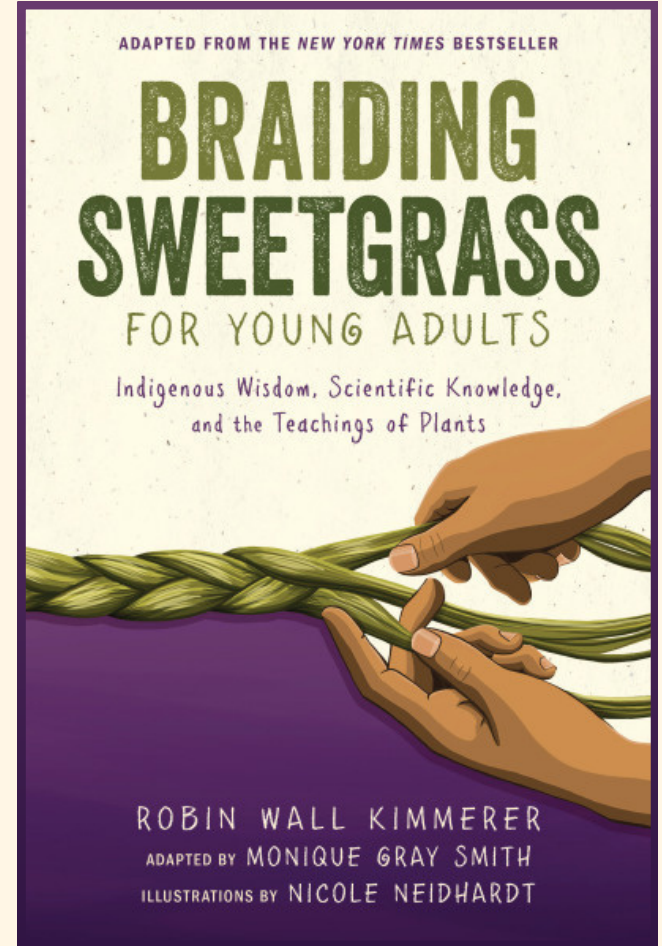

the Miller
ART MUSEUM

BJÖRKLUNDEN
LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

DOOR COUNTY READS 2024

LIST OF EVENTS

For up-to-date information on events
visit DoorCountyLibrary.org

Sweetgrass photo credit: Leah LaPointe, Red Cliff Ojibwe

Friends
OF DOOR COUNTY
LIBRARIES

Saturday, January 20

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. CST

Kress Pavilion (7845 Church St, Egg Harbor)

Door County Reads 2024: Kickoff Event with Dr. JP Leary

Join us for the opening event of Door County Reads 2024 with speaker Dr. J P Leary of UWGB and author of "The Story of Act 31: How Native History Came to Wisconsin Classrooms". Dr. JP Leary will be leading a discussion on how we can learn with intention. Audience members will be asked to think about where their prior learnings about the First Nations came from and how they mesh, or not, with scholarly and tribal points of view, and how the sources of information we use to inform ourselves matter. Musical guests: The Forest County Potawatomi youth drumming group "Fire Nation".

Zoom Meeting: 835 3502 1988 Zoom Passcode: 575692

Saturday, January 20

6:00 p.m.

Kress Pavilion (7845 Church St, Egg Harbor)

Ancient Roots Homestead Journey with Ben and Lucy Grignon

Transitioning from teaching in a modern colonial classroom into working as an educator of Ancient Indigenous skills, ideas, and traditions, Ben and Lucy Grignon will talk about their research with traditional gardening practices from their ancestors dating back from the past to the present day. Ben and Lucy are working to reconnect to their cultural inheritance through the land, plants, medicines, and wildlife. Indigenous recipes will be shared as well!

Zoom Meeting: 825 1449 4809 Zoom Passcode: 565789

Sunday, January 21

10:00 p.m. - 12:00 p.m.

DC Land Trust Office (217 N 4th Ave, Sturgeon Bay)

Rethinking Education and Menominee Traditional Games with Ben and Lucy Grignon

Teachers Lucy and Ben Grignon will discuss how educators have changed their educational philosophies to create initiatives that are rooted in our traditional educational ways of being to serve their students, communities, our ancestors, and a future educational methodology.

After the talk, hands-on activities of traditional Menominee games will be shared along with making your own storytelling beaded bracelet or necklace!

Zoom Meeting: 834 6167 0863 Zoom Passcode: 014090

Wednesday, January 24

1:00 p.m. CST

Zoom

Finding Purpose in Research from an Indigenous Perspective with Dr. Kat Milligan-McClellan

Join us for a Zoom presentation with Dr. Kat Milligan-McClellan, Assistant Professor of Molecular and Cell Biology/Microbiology at the University of Connecticut. She will be discussing purpose in research from an indigenous perspective.

Zoom Meeting: 817 6573 2503 Zoom Passcode: 078563

Thursday, January 25

10:30 a.m.

Egg Harbor Library (7845 Church St, Egg Harbor)

Egg Harbor Book Discussion

Join the Egg Harbor Library for a book discussion of "Braiding Sweetgrass For Young Adults" by Robin Wall Kimmerer, adapted by Monique Gray Smith, and illustrated by Nicole Neidhardt.

Thursday, January 25

2:00 p.m.

Sturgeon Bay Library (107 S. 4th Ave, Sturgeon Bay)

Movie Matinee (Smoke Signals)

This groundbreaking Indigenous made movie from 1998 is a coming-of-age comedy-drama adapted by and from Sherman Alexie's short story collection, "The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven". Director Chris Eyre and actors Adam Beach, Evan Adams, Irene Bedard, Gary Farmer, and Tantoo Cardinal deliver the hardships and intertwined stories of their characters' families on the Coeur d'Alene Indian reservation in Idaho. The movie follows the unlikely pairing of Victor & Thomas journeying to Phoenix after the death of Victor's estranged father for his ashes. On the way, they examine their identities, discover from new perspectives, and grow in the healing that comes from it. (PG-13)

Saturday, January 27

10:30 a.m.

Miller Art Museum (107 S. 4th Ave, Sturgeon Bay)

Oneida Creation Story with Paper Turtle project with Stephanie Muscavitch

Stephanie Muscavitch, a multimedia artist, Iroquois potter, and Oneida language and culture instructor will be sharing the Oneida Creation Story and teaching how to create traditional paper turtles.

Thursday, February 1

6:00-8:00 pm

Crossroads at Big Creek

Robin Wall Kimmerer: Video and Virtual Q & A

Crossroads at Big Creek will be hosting our author virtually for a video presentation followed by a virtual discussion with author Robin Wall Kimmerer.

Zoom TBD

MORE EVENTS THROUGH FEBRUARY 20 COMING SOON!